Getting to Know HTU...

This year's theme is "Getting to Know HPU." Howard Payne University is interesting and unique because its students are. Anytime there is a circular picture on the page (like the one at the right), you can read the caption underneath to get to know a particular student that helps make HPU the great campus that it is.

This is Sydney Spencer, a graduating senior and triple major in the Guy D. Newman Academy, Global Studies, and Social Work. This year she served as student body president, president of Gamma Beta Phi, a member of the Social Work Club, a member of Pi Gamma Nu, and an intern for Good Samaritan Ministries.

"My favorite thing about HPU is the relationship between the student body and closeness between the student body and faculty/ staff. My favorite experience as student body president was hosting the Spring Fling and Fest Fling dances. It was so much fun being able to participate in an event alongside friends and seeing the entire student body come out and participate."

Disney Makes History

Senior linebacker and kicker Jason Disney became just the ninth player in the 20-year history of the American Southwest Conference – and the first for HPU – to be named first-team all-conference at two positions in the same season.

As a kicker, Disney made five of his seven field goal attempts, with a long of 46 yards, to go with 15 extra-point kicks.

At linebacker, Disney made 118 tackles to lead the ASC for the second consecutive season and to lead the Yellow Jackets for the third time in four years.

Disney finished with 32 points from his kicking and one blocked PAT return, meaning he accomplished an unusual feat in college by leading his team in tackles and scoring.

Braxton Harris

New football coach not worried about HPU's past record

New Howard Payne head coach Braxton Harris has to change the past record of Yellow Jacket football, but he's not interested in spending much time dwelling on the past.

Asked about taking over a team that lost all 10 of its games last season, Harris spoke with tunnel vision toward the future.

"When I see 10 games, I see 10 games we can win next year," the former Texas Lutheran assistant head coach said. "I couldn't ask for a better situation. I see opportunity. I see where we can go.

"I don't care about what was done here last year. I'm not going to watch any film from last year's games. There's nothing we can do about that. We want to look toward getting better."

The 32-year-old Harris was hired to become HPU's 23rd head football coach in December.

"Our immediate challenge is recruiting," Harris said. "Recruiting is the lifeblood of any football program. It's not all about how fast someone can run or how high they can jump. It's about do they fit at this university."

Harris inherits a team that in 2016 finished last (eighth) in the American Southwest Conference in scoring offense at 18 points per game and seventh in scoring defense at 44.3 ppg.

Also, the Jackets compete in a conference that includes reigning national champion Mary Hardin-Baylor and perennial playoff qualifier Hardin-Simmons.

"We want to be competitive year in and year out in the ASC," Harris said. "It's the toughest DIII conference in the nation, and I love that."

In the bigger picture, not only was HPU 0-10 last year for the second time in school history, the Yellow Jackets have posted 10 consecutive losing seasons with a 20-80 record over the last decade. The Jackets' last winning season was 7-3 in 2005.

The last decade led HPU officials to hire outside the program after promoting from within for the last three head coaching hires since 2008.

"We felt like we needed a change – someone with a new outlook and a new perspective," said HPU athletic director Hunter Sims, who also served as head coach last season. "Braxton's background fits Howard Payne, but he can bring in some new ideas and new energy to the position."

Harris comes from a winning pedigree. He played for Mary Hardin-Baylor, helping the Crusaders to a national runner-up finish in 2004. He also coached four years at UMHB, helping the Crusaders to four conference titles and two NCAA III national semifinal appearances.

At Texas Lutheran the last four seasons, Harris helped the Bulldogs to a 27-13 record and three conference championships.

Joseph Dunlap ('09) enjoys being a professor of music, especially to his Music Theory IV classes. He says of HPU, "My favorite thing is how passionate the students are... I am grateful that HPU has given me this chance to teach at my alma mater and help shape the minds of the future music educators of Texas." While a student at HPU, Dunlap was involved in the YJ Band, the jazz ensemble, and the theatre department. He also served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Yellow Jacket Newspaper. Dunlap has his Master of Music Degree in Music Theory and Composition from Hardin-Simmons University.
